

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

For families like mine who live in an area which can receive neither cable nor satellite, diversity and competition of broadcast media are crucial to receiving a variety of viewpoints. Please do not take actions that lead to a further homogenization of the media.